

Achille

Designer	Jean Marie Massaud
Year	2010

The Achille seating collection, designed by Jean Marie Massaud, combines comfort and functionality, resulting ideal for meeting rooms, workspaces, and hospitality settings. Attention to detail, formal elegance, and light, refined lines integrate seamlessly into contemporary and dynamic environments.

Available in chair and armchair versions, Achille features a padded structure that conveys a sense of enveloping comfort. The wide range of fabric and leather upholstery options, all fully removable, is tailored to meet the diverse needs of the contract sector. Its essential silhouette reflects the French designer's stylistic vision, characterised by reduction, synthesis, and lightness.
