

Spiros

Year	1987 – 2021
Designer	Vico Magistretti

“Simplicity is the most complex achievement in the world,” said Vico Magistretti, and his virtuosity with purified design is evident in this first creation of his for Acerbis, using a change in perspective to transform an everyday object – the broomstick – into an object of captivating essentialism.

The Spiros comes in free-standing version with base, with spiral-shaped wooden pegs fitted onto the central wooden post.
